What's new?

- ConvertXtoDVD 5 Beta version available

The Beta version is now available to everyone!

Get your hands on this test version, whether you have a key or not, in which case you'll only be able to use it as "trial" with the watermark. It's stable enough for you to use it, yet it may have some bugs. If you like it and need an unlock key, buy V4 and you will be able to generate a key for V5. If you are a returning ConvertXtoDVD customer, you get 30% off!

- VSO programs compatible with Windows 8

We are happy to announce that all our programs are not only compatible but also certified for Windows 8!

-Convert your videos to the new iPhone 5

If you're lucky enough to have an iPhone 5, you must be enjoying its big screen to watch your videos on it. With Blu-ray and DVD converter, you can now convert your movie collection to the new format and enjoy your videos on your Iphone!

VSO Helpdesk

- How to renew my license ?

If you have owned a license for more than a year (and unless you bought a Lifetime license), then you will need to renew it if you want to download the latest updates (this might be the case if you wish to use ConvertXtoDVD 5 for instance). By clicking here, you will see if you need to renew (and how to if necessary). The renewal is offered with a 30% discount on the standard price. If you do not wish to renew every year you will also be able to opt for the Lifetime license.

Did you know?

- New ConvertXtoDVD 5 guide

If you are using the Beta version, then you will see that despite offering new features and a new interface, ConvertXtoDVD 5 still is as easy to use as ever. We have compiled a complete and reading-friendly guide should you want to get more info on the new features.

If you want to contact us please use support form or our Facebook and Twitter accounts.

Bye for now!
